THE FIRENZA

NEW
FOR 2006

The Canterbury is a smaller version of the Abbey, shown opposite, designed specifically for those homes where space is at a premium.

THE CLASSIC

NEW
FOR 2006

The largest fireplace in the Lifestyles Collection, the 59" Enfield, designed for large rooms where a grand focal point is required.

NEW
FOR 2006

The Isis, a delightfully modern textured stone fireplace with sweeping curves and seductive art-deco appeal.

NEW
FOR 2006

A modest and beautifully simple smoothstone fireplace,

The Orkney will fit snugly into those cosier interiors.

NEW
FOR 2006

Modest in size, with some light decorative carving, the textured Shetland suite is petite and unassuming yet perfectly stylish.

NEW
FOR 2006

A contemporary smooth stone fireplace, with a hint of art-deco, the Cairo is unique, elegant and sophisticated.

Information & Disclaimer

(i) Elan products are designed, manufactured and distributed in the UK by Merlincraft Limited. Merlincraft has a policy of ongoing development and improvement and reserve the right to change specifications and/or designs and/or to discontinue products in this catalogue at any time without prior notification.

(ii) Whilst every effort is made to reproduce the colour of the products accurately it is not possible using photographs. Prior to making a final decision on colour you should request a colour sample from your retailer.

(iii) Your fireplace retailer may or may not stock the appliances shown in this brochure. Please consult your retailer for advice on any appliance and whether it would be appropriate or suitable for your project.

(iv) Elan products come with a 12 month limited warranty to provide piece of mind in the unlikely event of malfunction. The warranty is valid only if the product is sold by an approved Elan retailer and your fireplace is installed as shown in our installation instructions by a registered CORGI installation engineer. In the event that a problem occurs with any aspect of your fireplace you should contact your retailer immediately. Failure to meet the service intervals of your heating appliance may invalidate your Elan warranty. The warranty does not affect your statutory rights.

ELAN BACK PANELS ARE NOT SUITABLE FOR USE WITH SOLID FUEL FIRES OR GAS FIRES THAT HEAT THE PANEL ABOVE 100 °C. YOU SHOULD CONSULT YOUR RETAILER ON THE SUITABILITY OF A PARTICULAR HEATING APPLIANCE PRIOR TO INSTALLATION.
